Introduction

- I Questions to consider concerning the historic setting of this prayer vs. 1-2.
- A] The historic setting briefly explained.
  - B] A question to consider. What would we think about God or ourselves if another country or group of people captured us, destroyed our places of worship and enslaved us?
  - C] Daniel's search for answers. Jeremiah 25:1-14, 29:4-30.
  - D] Other questions to consider in applying this text to our day:
    - 1] Are we in anyway like the people of Jeremiah's day?
    - 2] Do we habitually come to church, go home, eat and not apply the Word to our lives?
    - 3] Do we confess our sins to the Lord, our mates, children?
    - 4] Do we hear the Word and then go home and abuse our mates or children verbally, emotionally, physically or even sexually and yet claim to have been saved from our sins?
    - 5] Do we come to church and then habitually complain at home?
    - 6] Do we express any joy at home or church about our salvation?
    - 7] Do we hear the Word and make little attempt to share it?
- II The attitude in which this prayer was given vs. 3
- A] In verse three the attitude of _____ is expressed.
  - B] This attitude is seen in Daniel's life in three ways:
    - 1] _____ 3a.
    - 2] _____ 3b.
    - 3] _____ 3c.
- III The content of this prayer vs. 4-19.
- A] Daniel's Prayer expressed a high view of _____ vs.3-4, 9, 14, 18-19.
  - B] Daniel's Prayer included _____ of _____ vs. 5-15.
  - C] Daniel's Prayer expressed _____ with the motive of experiencing God's righteousness in the land vs. 16-19.
